Game Instructions: One More, One Less

Object of the game: The student will determine the number that is one more and one less than the number they rolled.

- Player rolls the dice.
- Write the number rolled in the middle column.
- In the left column the player writes one number less than the number rolled.
- In the right column the player writes one number more than the number rolled.

-1	Starting Number	+1